

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

EYE EPIDEMIC IN LOS ANGELES—Patricia Mousal, opera singer, has started what may become a habit in the Los Angeles area. She appeared in the city wearing a surgical mask, as ordered by her doctor, to protect herself against "virus A," a mysterious infectious germ that is reaching epidemic proportions. Miss Mousal will wear the mask until she leaves Los Angeles.

NOT ONE, BUT FOUR, GREAT-GRANDPARENTS—Odds against a child having four great-grandfathers are high. At a family affair, but Michael Durbin, 1, of Barrie, has them. Here he is with mother, Mrs. J. A. Durbin. Youngest great-grandfather is Stephen Clark, 74, of Barrie, seen holding Michael.

TWIN CITIZENS FOR CANADA—Refugees from Poland, Mrs. E. Szwed has arrived in Canada with her twins, Hs and Muchyn. Mary McKellar of the Red Cross is seen with them at Union Station, Toronto. Widowed in a concentration camp, she was later married to Mr. Szwed, whose wife died in a camp.

SENTENCE QUASHED—One-year sentence for theft of a book imposed at Port Arthur on Joseph E. McMahon was quashed by the Ontario court of appeal sitting at Osgoode Hall. McMahon had served five months of the sentence.

TRAIN HITS REAR OF BUS, 26 PASSENGERS INJURED—26 passengers were injured in a level-crossing accident at Ottawa, Ont., when it was in collision with a C.N.R. train. Bus was almost across the tracks with 40 passengers when the locomotive caught it at the rear, doing damage shown.

DIRECTOR ARAB RAIDS, AUTHORITIES BELIEVE—Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Hajj Amin Husseini, said to be the "brain" behind Arab action to prevent partition of Palestine, chats with newsmen in Cairo. Britain "called for information" from Syria on the Palestine situation of Arab.

TO ACCOMPANY U.N. PARTITION COMMISSION TO PALESTINE—In a move designed to add prestige and weight to the U.N. partition commission that will soon leave for Palestine, Arkady Sobolev of Russia, shown here with his wife and son, is to accompany the group. Sobolev is the U.N. assistant secretary-general.

POLIO VICTIM SEES MOVIES IN BED—York tomorrow's new Potomac club, an organization formed by five men recently dedicated to the work of providing motion pictures for shut-ins and the aged, held its premises at the home of Leslie Prior, 14, (left), a polio victim. Visiting the girl at the club's first attempt to bring movies into the sickroom were Dorcas Kennedy (right), and Joyce Storey, the invalid girl's classmate.

THRILL OF A LIFETIME—Boyhood ambition is mirrored in the face of 11-year-old Geoffrey Mortimer as he climbs into the driver's seat of a motorcycle in London. The motorcycle is one of a display of British automobiles and cycles that have made speed record history.

WELL UP IN WORLD—Strolling along mostly on foot above the ground is Harry Sloan, who claims to be the world's still walking champion. This pair is 22 feet long and Harry has to lay on the second-story window of a London pub for service.

POCKET SUBMARINE READY FOR TESTS—This new Italian submarine, invented by Pietro Vassano (right), which will be tested on Lake Garda, in Italy, in the near future. The inventor claims that his craft can go down 3,000 metres below the surface. That is approximately 3,280 feet. Operations of the tiny submarine are controlled by radio.

"U.N. CAN SUCCEED"—MRS. E.D.R.—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was guest speaker at a Rotarian club meeting in Kingston, Ont., attended by 150 students of Queen's university. She told of her experiences as U.S. delegate to the United Nations Educational, Social and Cultural organization and maintained her confidence in the United Nations machinery. Here she smiles as the microphone almost topples.

ARABS WISH TO TAKE OVER PALESTINE POLICE JOB—Occupation of Palestine by Arab troops when the British withdrew is recommended by the Arab League. Cairo reports. British planes, tanks and troops have lifted an Arab siege of four Jewish settlements on the Helwan road. Britain is expected to surrender her mandate April 15 and have troops out by August. This is an Arab recruiting scene.

"ILLEGAL" IMMIGRANTS IN CANADA—Seven Poles are being held in Toronto on a charge of illegal entry into Canada. R.C.M.P. expect to find more persons have entered Canada by the same method he seems used to enter the Dominion. David Fajlowicz, one of the seven held in Toronto, thought he had complied with regulations in entering Canada, gave himself up to police when he discovered he had not. At a D.P. camp in Frankfurt, he gave "George," an unknown "bookman," a Latin passport, a diamond ring and a gold band for which in return "George" arranged his passage to Canada. "George" accompanied him to Toronto by plane from Paris, then disappeared, Fajlowicz says. 2702

POLICE USE MINE DETECTOR TO UNCOVER HIDDEN BANK LOOT—For the first time police in Toronto, Ont., used an army mine detector to uncover $100,000 loot stolen from a branch of the Royal Bank several months ago. Police followed a tip the loot from the robbery was buried underground along Queen Elizabeth Way, seven miles from the city limits.

